PROVOCATION & THINKING OUTSIDE THE BOX TO SOLVE PROBLEMS
You begin by making deliberately stupid statements (Provocations), in which something you take for granted about the situation is not true. Statements need to be stupid to shock your minds out of existing ways of thinking. Once you have made a provocative statement, you then suspend judgment and use that statement to generate ideas. Provocations give you original starting points for creative thinking. Reversal is to deliberately think in the opposite direction or the exact reverse of the issue at hand
